

Issued on behalf of and with the approval of Analox Sensor Technology Ltd

PROFILE

KERRY STURMAN

TRAINEE CONTRACTS MANAGER – ANALOX GROUP

Kerry Sturman joined Analox in August 2008 as Sales Administrator. Prior to joining the company she had studied Law with Criminology at the University of Teesside. Kerry continued to study part-time, completing her Legal Practice Course at the College of Law in York and becoming a step closer to qualifying as a solicitor whilst working full time at Analox.

Analox has benefitted from Kerry's legal expertise - she is now working as Trainee Contracts Manager and has worked extensively on Analox's contract obligations including reviewing UK DEFCON's and US FAR's and DFAR's as well as the company's duties under UK and US exporting regulations.

Kerry studied law as a mature student, having previously worked in accounts for firms in Middlesbrough and Doncaster. She lives with her eight year old daughter in Guisborough, the town where she was born and brought up.

ENDS